1. Opened in prayer
2. Debriefing
 - Projects
 - Most of the projects have been complete or almost complete. The 2 that's left will on the list for the next project date.
 - We have formed a partnership with Groundwork RVA to help with some of the projects in between 5th Sunday
 - The name for the 5th Sunday initiatives will be "I Love My City Go Sundays" which is the name LUX Church has been using. Because I love my city, on the 5th Sundays I will go out and show love to the city.
 - Relationship Building Outcomes
 - The relationship building outcome was great. We are scheduling the next relationship building day for a Saturday coming up soon.
 - Post walk
 - Post walk welcome packages were shown which includes a thank you/welcome letter, neighborhood watch resource guide and a pad of paper with a prayer on the inside cover from the TEAM.
 - Names will soon be given to churches. Jo reiterates at the doors when she drops off the welcome packages that they will be called sometimes from one of the local churches to check on them.
3. Moving forward activities
 - Continuing Relationship Building Walks.
 - We are scheduling the next relationship building day for a Saturday coming up soon.
 - We will do the relationship building in both Highland Park and Jackson ward near LUX Church on the same day splitting the groups to have an even amount.
 - December 1st Community Resource Fair at Ann Hardy Park, 11:00AM – 4:00PM
 - Lt. Edwards talked about the Resource Fair and will get out more information and flyers soon.
 - Manny will supply a 50' tent and some 8' round tables
 - Boaz & Ruth and 6PIC will supply tables and chairs
 - There will be food trucks, DJ, and a Water Station. People will get tickets for get food when they go to the different stations and get their card stamped. The TEAM table will be one of those stations.
 - This could draw 400-500 people.

- The event doesn't have a name yet so we're open to names. Chris throughout the name COP for Community Outreach Party which I like.
 - We didn't have a chance to talk about the Lost and Found Dinner but that's OK because we won't know if we can have that until November when we find out if we got the grant.
 - We are meeting with Paul Manning, Anna & Matt from Bless RVA and Manny to discuss a 5th Sunday partnership.
